SOMEDAY

Someday on the planet,
There will be
Perfect peace and harmony,
And all the people everywhere
Will love each other without fear.

I know the day is coming soon,
When there is no more hate,
And we see everyone with love,
I know it's not too late.

There won't be a need for guns,
And we'll have no more war,
And we can just play together,
Cause that's what life Is for!

Someday on the planet,
There will be
Perfect peace and harmony,
And all the people everywhere
Will love each other without fear.

I know the day is coming soon,
When there is no more hate,
And we see everyone with love,
I know it's not too late.

So let's talk our problems out,
Put our anger away.
If we all can join together,
We'll get close to someday.

Someday on the planet,
There will be
Perfect peace and harmony,
And all the people everywhere
Will love each other without fear.

Repeat 2X

Janet just moved into town,
And wanted to belong.
One day, some girls asked her,
"Would you like to come along?"

After school, they all met
To beat up Mary Lynn.
Janet said It was wrong,
So they called her "chicken."

If you want to be smart,
Don't follow what others do;
Just listen to your heart,
And you'll know what's right for you.

After school, they all met
To beat up Mary Lynn.
Janet said it was wrong,
So they called her "chicken."

Janet ran and got an adult.
Mary Lynn thanked her in the end.
Now Janet's very careful
Who she chooses as her friends.

If you want to be smart
Don't follow what others do;
Just listen to your heart,
And you'll know what's right for you.

To prove who's wrong and who is right.
Remember good times you had,
And then you won't feel so bad.

Find a friend to listen to you talk.
You Just want peace, my friend,
To make your anger end.

TATTLETALE

She's a tattletale,
Tattletale,
Tattles on everyone.
Tattle tattle,
Tattletale.
Look out! Here she comes.

Repeat 2X

The monster in me
Is always angry.
It wants to fight and never cares.
So I give myself a hug,
Out comes the love,
And the monster disappears.

She sneaks all around,
Watches what you do.
The first chance she gets,
Her finger points at you.

I don't want to be a monster,
I want peace today.
I don't want to be a monster,
Monster go away!

"I'm telling, I'm telling"
She says and says again.
We all know why
She has no friends.

When the monster comes out,
I scream and shout.
How can I make it go away?
I'll cool off awhile,
And put on a smile,
Soon everything will be okay.

She's a tattletale,
Tattletale,
Tattles on everyone.
Tattle tattle,
Tattletale.
Look out! Here she comes.

SONGS FOR PEACEMAKERS: Conflict Resolution Program

By Marcia and Max Nass, Guidance Counselor, Workshop Presenter, Jamaica, NY

Make Your Classroom a More Peaceful Place, and Introduce Your Students to Skills That Will Help Them Throughout Their Lives!

Here's a fun and entertaining way to introduce and reinforce conflict resolution principles with your students and to make peace education part of your curriculum! This highly acclaimed program uses music to teach children to solve their problems peacefully, without fighting.

THE PROGRAM presents an overview on why teaching conflict resolution is becoming a necessity in today's increasingly violent world, and why using music to teach peace education is so successful with young children. An easy-to-prepare lesson plan is provided for each song. The comprehensive teachers' handbook is bursting with fascinating ideas and reproducible activity masters: games, role-playing and brainstorming exercises, writing activities, take-home assignments, and tips for teachers. Reproducible song sheets make it easy for the whole class to sing along.

The songs on the CD are a fun way to reinforce conflict resolution principles. I've used them throughout the country—"
Linda Lantieri!, Coordinator, Resolving Conflict Creatively, New York City Public Schools, (One of the largest Peace Education Programs in the United States.)

In addition, you'll be able to create Peacemaker Buttons, Cool Off Cards, and a Kid's Peacemaker Declaration for your classroom, and much more.

SONGS FOR PEACEMAKERS CD: Features twelve rap, reggae, rock n' roll, and pop tunes, with catchy and repetitive lyrics that are easy for young children to learn. Kids report that remembering the lines from a song has helped them to cool off, say "sorry," ignore name callers, and walk away from troublemakers or a confrontational situation. Your students will love singing these songs, while at the same time they'll be learning valuable skills on how to "make things right without a fight" and how they can become "peacemakers." You'll be asked again and again, "Can you play the peace songs today?" Reproducible song sheets make it easy for the whole class to sing along.
